Presidents Message

On behalf of the International College of Prosthodontists (ICP), we would like to welcome all of our colleagues to Seoul, Korea and the 16th Biennial Meeting of the ICP. The ICP continues to grow as one of the largest international organizations dedicated to prosthodontics. With our long history of successful meetings and membership development, the ICP has grown to over a thousand members representing more than 70 countries. We take great pride in knowing our meetings provide the valued opportunity to learn from and network with the foremost leaders in the specialty of prosthodontics and our colleagues from around the world.

We anticipate the COEX Convention & Exhibition Center to provide a valuable and successful venue. Thanks to the work done by the program chairs, Dr. Ken Malament and Dr. Seong Joo Heo under the watchful eye of President Jacobs, the initial program already promises to be yet another memorable ICP meeting with its special bouquet of expertise, experience, scholarship, science and clinical art from our esteemed colleagues.

We are seeing significant developments in many areas of Prosthodontics. In this meeting we will address these new developments with state of the art presentations. We are bringing the top names in the profession to concentrate on the important issues of treatment predictability in both new and traditional modalities, as well as updating us with current concepts in all fields of Prosthodontics. In addition, we will continue with the tradition of providing dedicated sessions to maxillofacial prosthodontics, and from this conference on, also to the often neglected field of geriatric dentistry.

We will also continue with the graduate student sessions, where graduate students can present successful cases, cases for treatment planning, cases under way, and so on – all cases from which they have learnt and from which we too can learn.

We are firmly convinced that working together, networking, socializing together, exchanging ideas and addressing the most recent prosthodontic techniques and research, we will undoubtedly benefit both ourselves and our patients.

Yours Sincerely,
Dr. Rhonda Jacob and Dr. C. Peter Owen

Conference Site

The 16th Biennial Meeting of the ICP will be held at the COEX Convention Center over the dates of September 17-20, 2015. Our agenda will bring together leaders in prosthodontics from around the world. The city of Seoul and the COEX Conference Center will provide an outstanding venue for social networking.

Seoul, Korea

Situated on the Han River, Seoul's history stretches back more than 2,000 years when it was founded in 18 BCE by Baekje, one of the Three Kingdoms of Korea. It continued as the capital of Korea under the Joseon Dynasty. The Seoul Capital Area contains five UNESCO World Heritage Sites: Changdeok Palace, Hwaseong Fortress, Jongmyo Shrine, Namhansanseong and the Royal Tombs of the Joseon Dynasty.

Seoul is surrounded by mountains, the tallest being Mt. Bukhan, the world’s most visited national park per square foot. Modern landmarks include the iconic Dongdaemun Design Plaza, Lotte World, the world’s second largest indoor theme park and Moonlight Rainbow Fountain, the world’s longest bridge fountain.

Seoul was voted the world’s most wanted travel destination by Chinese, Japanese and Thai tourists for three consecutive years in 2009–2011 with over 12 million international visitors in 2013, making it East Asia’s most visited city and the world’s 7th biggest earner in tourism. Ranked sixth in the Global Power City Index and seventh in the Global Financial Centres Index, the metropolis exerts a major influence in global affairs as one of the five leading hosts of global conferences...

Making Seoul, Korea an ideal location for our 16th international ICP Biennial Meeting since its 32nd year of existence as a global fellowship dedicated to the advancement of prosthodontics.

A Fantastic Bargain...
ICP constituent and affiliate members receive a year’s subscription to the IJP included in your annual dues payment.
ICP members are offered discounted conference fees and encouraged to submit abstracts.

We encourage our members to remain active and appreciate their support and dedication. Dues must be paid in full if registering for our meeting as a member. Members with dues in arrears may register at the Non–Member fee.

Korean colleagues are asked to register through the following web page:
www.res-inc.com/resconference/meetings/icp/koreanregister.aspx

Graduate Student Treatment Planning Session
We are happy to announce that the ICP will once again incorporate a Graduate Student Treatment Planning Session.
This will consist of 15 minute presentations of case specific treatment plans, treatment sequence and outcomes. The emphasis will be on the decision making process involved in arriving at a diagnosis and appropriate treatment plan taking into account the best available evidence. For more details, please visit the ICP web site.

Abstracts & Posters

Call for Papers
You must be an active member of the ICP to submit abstract papers (poster). If you are not current with annual dues or have not yet joined the ICP, please do so before submitting an abstract.

All posters relating to conference topics will be accepted.
Abstract papers must be submitted online on the ICP website.
www.icp-org.com/ICP_Meetings and link to conference “Call for Papers” tab

Instructions for oral and poster presentations are posted on the ICP website.

Please keep your abstracts to 350 words or less. All selected abstracts will be published in our Conference Program Book. Papers will be published as presented by author. Please be sure to proof read and edit your paper. Abstracts may be edited on the ICP web site up until July 31, 2015 (printing deadline).

Poster Abstract Submission Deadline: June 26, 2015
Oral Abstracts are closed

ICP website: www.icp-org.com

Poster Awards
Awards will be presented to outstanding posters during the ICP meeting.

Eligibility: First (presenting) author of any poster presented at the meeting will be eligible for the prize.

Adjudication: A panel of judges will review the posters.

Presentation: The awards will be presented during the ICP meeting.

Prize: There will be prizes for posters in four categories. Due to the large number of posters submitted, poster abstract papers will be reviewed upon submission and nominations for awards will first be selected based on the quality of the submitted abstract. Please prepare your abstract paper accordingly. However, all posters will be reviewed to determine if additional nominations are acceptable for awards.

Prizes will be awarded as follows:
1. The best case presentation poster
2. The best posters depicting clinical research
3. The best posters for all other research
4. The best posters in any category from local participants

Publication: Abstracts with definitive scientific data may be considered for publication in the IJP.

Attendance: The Poster’s “first author” must be the “presenter” during the scheduled Poster Session. Presenters who fail to attend the meeting will have their abstract removed from publication and consideration for awards.

Views expressed by the presenters at the ICP Meeting are solely their own and do not necessarily reflect the positions or policies of the ICP. The ICP reserves the right to cancel or modify its program as circumstances might dictate.
