New Awards in Education & Research

The ICP has awarded its first research grants through the Research Grants Program. This new initiative administered by the ICP was officially launched in Seoul at the 16th Biennial Meeting last September. Grant applications were called in October 2015 and seven grants totaling almost $17,000 USD were awarded in April 2016. See page 2...

Recipient of the Ivoclar Vivadent/ICP Research Fellowship announced

The ICP is pleased to announce the inaugural winner of the Ivoclar Vivadent/ICP Research Fellowship in Dental Restorative Materials. This fellowship was launched at the 16th Biennial Meeting in Seoul and provides an award of $40,000 USD towards a one year restorative materials research program. Congratulations to Dr. Julián Conejo, D.D.S., MSc., who will be undertaking his work with the supervision of his mentor Dr. Markus B. Blatz, DMD, PhD at the Department of Preventive and Restorative Sciences, School of Dental Medicine, University of Pennsylvania. See page 2...

17th ICP Biennial Meeting ■ Santiago, Chile ■ September 7-9th, 2017

Plan to join your colleagues and world leaders in our specialty in spectacular Santiago, Chile’s largest city and capital since 1541. The conference will be held at the premier meeting venue CentroParque Event and Convention Center, located in the heart of the city—yet within a few hours of the mountains, the Pacific Ocean, and nearby world-class wineries. This outstanding 2 ½ day program will be held in conjunction with the Society of Prosthodontics and Oral Rehabilitation of Chile (SPROCh) annual meeting, adding the special advantage of increased regional participation.

ICP members are encouraged to submit an abstract for Oral or Poster Presentation at the conference. Click here to go to the ICP Conference website for details on the call for papers, program overview & other information.

Conference Registration opens Sep 15th, 2016

Education and Research

Educational Research Grants. All award recipients are early career prosthodontic researchers and the criteria for evaluating and awarding each grant is based on primary scholarly merit. The maximum of any one application is $4000 USD and two researchers were awarded the maximum allocation. The remaining five received lesser grants in the range adhering to a spectrum of their respective scholarly merit as judged by the Research and Education Committee. The ICP Board of Councilors and members of the Education and Research Committee extend a hearty congratulations to each successful recipient!

The 2016 Award winners

Mahmoud Elbashti (Japan)
Yoav Pietrokovski (Israel)
Asher Zabrovsky (Israel)
Shalinie King (Australia)
Lianyi Xu (China)
Satya Narayan Pradhan (India)
Ramakanta Mahapatro (India)

Ivoclar Vivadent / ICP Research Fellowship in Dental Restorative Material. Developed in 2015, this new collaborative program will combine financial support with mentorship of the student, underwriting the potential for life-long impact for the student, the mentor, and the discipline of prosthodontics.

Congratulations are extended to:

Recipient Dr. Julian Conejo is a Visiting Scholar at the Department of Preventive and Restorative Sciences at the University of Pennsylvania School of Dental Medicine in Philadelphia, PA, where he conducts research on restorative materials.

Mentor Dr. Markus B. Blatz is professor of Restorative Dentistry and Chairman of the Department of Preventive and Restorative Sciences at the University of Pennsylvania School of Dental Medicine. He is the recipient of multiple teaching and research awards and has published and lectured extensively on dental esthetics, restorative materials, and implant dentistry.

17th ICP Biennial Meeting

Santiago, Chile: September 7-9, 2017

Santiago is the capital of Chile, located in the country’s central valley at an elevation of 520m (1,706.04 ft). Founded in 1541, Santiago has been the capital city since colonial times. The city boasts a downtown core of 19th century neoclassical architecture and winding side-streets, dotted by art deco, neo-gothic, and other styles. Santiago’s cityscape is shaped by several stand-alone hills and the fast-flowing Mapocho River, lined by elegant parks. The imposing Andes mountains can be seen from most points in the city and the outskirts are surrounded by vineyards. Santiago is within a few hours of both the mountains and the Pacific Ocean and an ideal location for our 17th international ICP Biennial Meeting. Make your travel plans early to join us in this spectacular part of the world!

Young Prosthodontic Educators (YPE) * IJP/ Karlsruhe Workshop

YPE workshops are provided by the IJP’s editorial group to function as an international faculty in their efforts to encourage and develop clinical prosthodontic scholarship. This extraordinary educational initiative seeks to underscore the international nature and commitment of the IJP’s prosthodontic discipline. Such dedication to the highest standards of education is endorsed by the ICP.

Next Workshop: October 16-19, 2016

Location: Institute for Continuing Professional Development, Karlsruhe Germany

The sixth biennial IJP/Karlsruhe Workshop for Young Prosthodontics Educators will once again be funded by Nobel Biocare, with additional support from the ICP, the Academy of Australian and New Zealand Prosthodontists and Quintessence Publishing Company. These unique workshops result from the pro bono commitment of a faculty selected from the IJP’s editorial team and are organized by Professors George Zarb (Canada), Winfried Walther (Germany), John Hobkirk (United Kingdom) and Iven Klineberg (Australia). The faculty’s objective is to identify, support and nurture clinical scholarship and leadership. Up to 36 new and past participants are selected for the biennial four-day program.

NOTE: The registration maximum for 2016 is now full!
